Mob Wrecks German Embassy

ST. PETERSBURG, Russia—via London—August 5.—A mob, infuriated through the detention of the Dowager Empress Marie by the Germans, wrecked the German embassy here last night.

The authorities allege that they discovered the body of a Russian footman in the embassy, shot through the head and stabbed about the body. The authorities claim the man had been dead two days.

The mob forced an entrance through the windows, hurled valuable paintings and furniture to the street where it was consumed in a bonfire.

Students, members of the mob, climbed a flagpole and tore down the gold eagles, and hoisted the Russian flag over the embassy.

Massive statuary, including a beautiful group depicting German victories, were hacked to pieces with axes.

A similar attempt to wreck the Austrian embassy proved unsuccessful owing to strong police protection.

PARIS, France, August 5.—The newspaper Le Peuple says that an early landing of British troops is expected.

SEATTLE, Wash., August 5.—The Canadian government has bought two submarines which were being built in a local shipyard for the Chilean navy.

PARIS, France, August 5.—The war office announces that the Belgians have annihilated two regiments of Prussian Ohlans.

BRUSSELS, Belgium, August 5.—French troops, supporting neutrality, have entered the province of Hainault to join the Belgian army in opposition to the Germans.

The Belgian forts in the province of Liege have repulsed the German advance. Belgian batteries destroyed a German pontoon bridge across the river Meuse, but the invaders later crossed at Maastricht.

LONDON, England, August 5.—Twenty-one German spies have been arrested, principally in important British naval centers.

The report that Viscount Morley, president of the local council, and John Burns, president of the local government board, had resigned is confirmed. They did not agree with Britain's stand for the maintenance of Belgian neutrality and the British ultimatum on the subject.

Earl Beauchamps has been appointed to succeed Viscount Morley and Walter Runciman to succeed Burns.

DOVER, England, August 5.—Reports of a big naval engagement were received here with the arrival of the German steamer Franz Horn this afternoon. The steamer reported firing audible from many directions. Nothing was seen of the hostile vessels.

STOCKHOLM, Sweden, August 5.—The government announces that if Sweden finds herself unable to preserve neutrality, she will join Russia, Great Britain and France.

Belgian Gunners Cannonading Invaders

BRUSSELS, Belgium, August 5.—The minister of war has announced that from the fortifications in Liege the Belgian gunners are vigorously cannonading the German invaders. A German officer taken prisoner said that the Belgian resistance amazed the German staff.

PORTLAND, Maine, August 5.—Heavy firing at sea has been heard here seemingly from the vicinity of Seguin island, about 25 miles south.

SUBMARINE TENDER ALERT.

The United States navy submarine tender Alert, Lieut. Bruce L. Canaga commanding, has arrived at the port from San Francisco. The Alert is looked upon as the "mother ship" for the eight submarines to be stationed here. Honolulu will be the home of the Alert for some time to come. Other officers in the little vessel are: Ensigns F. W. Scanland, Frank J. Lowry, P. A. Surgeon Reynolds Hayden, Asst. Paymaster R. E. A. Lambert, Chief Machinist C. J. Collins, Paymaster Clerk H. F. Wight.

IN BANKRUPTCY COURT

Malcolm P. Franklin, collector of customs, this morning received from Washington, D. C., the following cable dispatch signed by W. F. Malburn, assistant secretary of the treasury:

"President has issued a formal neutrality proclamation. Will be published in treasury decisions. Direct every person in your employ to observe neutrality laws."
Commenting on the matter, Collector Franklin said that the full details regarding the president's action will be published in the treasury decisions, copies of which should reach the local office within 10 or 12 days.
